

Concrete Paving

Our range of reconstituted concrete mimics the riven surface and textures of Yorkstone to add shape to the surface of the flagstones. The flagstones are available in 6 different sizes and designed to be laid randomly for that authentic natural stone appearance.

After laying, the rigours of our climate will weather the paving in a natural and becoming way making it virtually impossible to differentiate from real stone.